Summary

This course is designed for parents, carers, families and teachers of children with ADHD, Learning Disabilities, Aspergers or other challenging behaviours wishing to develop behavioural management plans. It is a hands on, interactive learning course where specific behaviours and strategies are worked through to a personalised action plan. The Kit includes the tools to develop a working behaviour management program that can be implemented immediately.

The course covers the following topics and their application in relation to each child:

1. The child's challenging behaviours, including present techniques and outcomes;
2. Recognising and strategising the activities, characteristics and stimuli that impact a child's behaviour;
3. What needs to be established before starting to manage the child;
4. Management and strategies to implement for discipline and dealing with outbursts;
5. How to apply the keys to both the child's behaviour and the behaviour management plan;
6. Balancing the child's strengths and weaknesses.

Participants then have the opportunity to combine knowledge, understanding and practical approaches in the establishment of a holistic teaching and behavioural management program for the identified child.
